

BUILD AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

With Best-Selling Children's Author
Diana Smith

A child-focused workshop, helping to bring children back to their imaginations, off technology and back into books and board games.

0438 955 794

author@dianasmithbookstoinspire.com

Focussing on empathy, resilience and positive self-regulation techniques.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Join Diana as she dresses up, reads her books, and helps children to build an attitude of gratitude!

With activities for a range of age groups including:

- Colouring in sheets
- Fill in a grateful journal
- The gratitude cube game
- Giant gratitude jenga

PRAISE FOR DIANA & HER BOOKS

I love this friendly welcoming book of delightful messages about the power of gratitude. I am so grateful to have been able to enjoy it today and know lots of families will enjoy it too. The illustrations are full of so much joy and hope. Well done!

- Maggie Dent,
Author, Educator and parenting resilience specialist

Diana was so warm and welcoming and we were all taken in by her passion for her books.

Diana's workshop adapted to each age group engaging the children in activities and gaining an understanding of gratitude through meaningful discussions with our older children.

Diana read her books along with her friends (plush toys) this was a great visual for our little learners.

We definitely recommend Diana and we can't wait to have her out again.

- Alkimos Beach Early Learning

